DETENTION ORDER

PAGE -1-

1 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for
2 detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which the
3 defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and
4 the safety of any other person and the community. The Government was represented by 5 Lawrence Lincoln. The defendant was represented by James Vonasch.

6 FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

7 (1) There is probable cause to believe the defendant committed the drug
8 offense. The maximum penalty is in excess of ten years. There is 9 therefore a rebuttable presumption against the defendant's release based
10 upon both dangerousness and flight risk, under Title 18 U.S.C. §
11 3142(e).

12 (2) Nothing in this record satisfactorily rebuts the presumption against 13 release for several reasons:
14 (a) The defendant poses a risk of nonappearance as he is a native and
15 citizen of Mexico; his background and ties to the Western District
16 of Washington are unknown; and the Bureau of Immigration and 17 Customs Enforcement has filed a detainer.
18 (b) Due to the nature and seriousness of the crime alleged, combined
19 with the defendant's unknown background, release of the 20 defendant would pose a risk to the community.
21 (c) The defendant stipulated to detention.
22 (3) Based upon the foregoing information which is consistent with the 23 recommendation of U.S. Pre-trial Services, it appears that there is no
24 condition or combination of conditions that would reasonably assure
25 future Court appearances and/or the safety of other persons or the 26 community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) The defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) The defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
- (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 31st day of August, 2005.
